BRADFORD'S REPORT ON IMPROVEMENTS FOR NAVY

STRONGLY RECOMMENDS GUAM
AS A DESIRABLE PLACE FOR A STATION.

Thinks a Thorough Survey Should be Made of the Western Pacific
Ocean to Ascertain the Reliability of "Danger" Marking on Charts.

WASHINGTON, November 14.—The report of Admiral Bradford, chief of the Naval Bureau of Equipment, records unprecedentedly large expenditures by cruising ships during the last fiscal year, and the disbursement of large amounts for freight, involved in the transportation of stores. Admiral Bradford sets forth the desirability of a naval station at Guam, emphasizing the importance of the island as a naval base. He also recounts rapid improvements in equipment work at the Cavite naval station, and the completion of a steel cold-storage house at Pago-Pago, on the island of Tutuila, Samoa. A new floating dry dock for the naval station at Algiers, La., is to be completed by May, 1901.

The amount of coal being consumed by the Navy is increasing year by year, and its cost last year averaged nearly $2 a ton more than during the fiscal year of 1898. Admiral Bradford again renews his recommendations for new naval coal depots. The bureau recommends the installation of the Marconi system of wireless telegraphy on board of several battleships of the Navy provided it can be done at a reasonable cost. Experiments in this system of signalling have proved successful in the main in the trials made by ships of the North Atlantic squadron, although quite a serious defect has been discovered. In the event that two vessels using the system should attempt to signal a single port or vessel simultaneously the receiving station or ship is found to be unable to distinguish between the messages sent to it.

The report says that the survey by the United States steamer Nero for a trans-Pacific submarine telegraph cable between Honolulu and the Philippines was most successfully accomplished, and that a satisfactory route for an all-American cable to connect the Pacific Coast with the outlying colonial possessions of the United States in the Pacific and with China and Japan has been discovered, thoroughly explored, surveyed and mapped. The bureau is now ready to lay the cable at any time.

The attention of the department is called to the necessity for a survey of the Western Pacific ocean. Many reported "danger spots" appear on the charts whose absolute danger is doubtful, thus giving rise to a great deal of uncertainty for solitudes among navigators.

Favors the Naval Reserve.

NEW YORK, November 14.—Secretary Long, it is said, in a special dispatch to the Tribune from Washington will in his report urge the establishment of a naval reserve to supplant the existing naval militia which is thought to have outlived its usefulness, as shown by its rapid deterioration since the war with Spain. The proposed reserve is already under consideration in Congress, with the endorsement of all naval and maritime interests. It contemplates the enrollment of officers and seamen in the merchant service much after the manner of the British reserve, at an expense far below that of the naval militia, with the distinct advantage of making experienced seafaring men available for service aboard fighting ships.

It will be shown that in case of war to-morrow the United States war ships now in service would require at least 500 officers and 10,000 men for fighting complements. With a national naval reserve enrolled this force could be secured and made efficient in a few weeks, while on the other hand, the present naval militia system could not supply one-tenth the number in twice the time.

MISS GRISWOLD'S CONCERT.

Drew a Good Audience and Was an Artistic Success.

Miss Della Griswold's concert Friday evening at the Opera House drew a good sized crowd of the music lovers of Honolulu. The entertainment was a short one, well rendered and enthusiastically received, particularly the first numbers by Miss Griswold and the violin solos by Paul Egry.

In her first song Miss Griswold had the help of Paul Egry's violin in an obligato, which made La Camella, a seventeenth century melody, particularly charming. The other two numbers were sung with the piano accompaniment alone and pleased very well. Following Miss Griswold, Mr. Frank A. Ballasoyus played one of Beethoven's Sonatas in three movements. It was well received. Egry then played, and as usual, met with an ovation. His rendition of the difficult Rondo Capriccioso by Saint Saens leaving nothing to be desired.

In answer to an encore on her second appearance Miss Griswold sang a charming little German ballad.

The next two numbers by Paul Egry were marred by the disqualification of the accompanist to let the soloist lead. The encore responded to by the violinist would have been much better had the accompaniment been withheld. Miss Griswold's final numbers showed a keen appreciation of the subjects and a careful preparation, the second one from Carmen being specially well rendered.

ENTERPRISE DAIRY AGAIN.

Proprietor is under Arrest for Selling Adulterated Milk to the Public.

Sylvano Nobriga, the proprietor of the Enterprise Dairy was arrested yesterday on the charge of selling milk adulterated with water. He was released on bond of $50 and will have a trial to-morrow.

Not more than a week ago, one of his drivers was before Judge Wilcox on the same charge. The milk was found to consist of between 30 and 50 per cent water. Since it was shown that the milk driver did nothing but deliver the milk, having nothing to do with sales, he was discharged. It may be different with the proprietor.

Coronado

NATURAL MINERAL

Water

Nature, which is more kind to us than we are ourselves, has given to mankind a perfectly fine, cooling and healthful water, which bubbles clear as crystal. From the springs at Coronado, California, where it is bottled fresh as it comes from nature's laboratory. It does not require to be carbonated with artificial gas to make it sparkle. Nature herself makes it all sparkling.

PURE

COOLING

HEALTHFUL

Coronado water acts as a solvent for organic matter which often causes blood into the system and causes bad bowels, indigestion and that "tired feeling." It assimilates perfectly with the gastric juices of the stomach, thereby aiding digestion. At the present time Coronado Water will prove invaluable to the residents of the Hawaiian Islands, who, since the recent storm, are drinking water heavily charged with organic matter.
